"Consolation"
Felix Mendelssohn

(Stand) Confession and Forgiveness

P: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
C: Amen.
P: Beloved in the Lord, let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our father, asking him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

(Sit/kneel)
P: Most holy and merciful Father:
C: We confess to you and to one another, and to the whole communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word, and deed; by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

P: We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others, as we have been forgiven.
C: Have mercy on us, Lord.
P: We have been deaf to your call to serve as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.

C: Have mercy on us, Lord.

P: We confess to you, Lord, all our past unfaithfulness. The pride, hypocrisy, and impatience in our lives, our inclination towards nit-picking and fault-finding,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Our self-indulgent appetites and ways, and our exploitation of other people,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Our anger at our own frustration, and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to share the faith that is in us,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Our blindness to human need and suffering, and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Our waste and pollution of your creation, and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

C: we confess to you, Lord.

P: Restore us, good Lord, and let your anger depart from us.

C: Hear us, Lord, for your mercy is great. Amen.
P: Upon this your confession, I, as a called and ordained servant of the word, announce the grace of God to all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I announce the forgiveness of all our sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

(Stand) Greeting
P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
C: And also with you.

1. For the peace in the world,
   For the health of the church,
   For the unity of all;
   For this holy house,
   For all who worship and praise,
   Let us pray to the Lord,
   Let us pray to the Lord. Refrain
2. That we may live out
   Your impassioned response
   To the hungry and the poor;
   That we may live out
   Truth and justice and grace,
   Let us pray to the Lord,
   Let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

3. For peace in our hearts,
   For peace in our homes,
   For peace throughout the world;
   For partners in life,
   For our neighbors and friends,
   Let us pray to the Lord,
   Let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

4. For your Spirit to guide;
   That you center our lives
   In the water and the word;

   With your body and blood,
   Let us pray to the Lord,
   Let us pray to the Lord. Refrain

Salutation and Prayer of the Day
P: The Lord be with you.
C: And also with you.
P: Let us pray:
C: Almighty God, our heavenly Father, Your mercies are new every morning; and though we deserve only punishment, You receive us as Your children and provide for all our needs of body and soul. Grant that we may heartily acknowledge Your merciful goodness, give thanks for all Your benefits, and serve You in willing obedience; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
The First Lesson
Isaiah 12:1–6

1 You will say in that day: “I will give thanks to you, O Lord, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. 2“Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the Lord God is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.” 3With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. 4And you will say in that day: “Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted. 5“Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously; let this be made known in all the earth. 6Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.”

R: The Word of the Lord.
C: Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson
2 Corinthians 5:16–21

16From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. 17Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 18All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; 19that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. 20Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. 21For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

R: The Word of the Lord.
C: Thanks be to God.
The Gospel Lesson

R: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the fifteenth chapter.
C: Glory to you, O Lord.

1Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear [Jesus]. 2And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, “This man receives sinners and eats with them.”
3So he told them this parable: . . .
4“There was a man who had two sons. 12And the younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me.’ And he divided his property between them. 13Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in reckless living. 14And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. 15So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. 16And he was longing to be fed with the pods that the pigs ate, and no one gave him anything.
17“But when he came to himself, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have more than enough bread, but I perish here with hunger! 18I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. 19I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Treat me as one of your hired servants.”’” 20And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. 21And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’ 22But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. 23And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. 24For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.’ And they began to celebrate.
Now his older son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.’ But he was angry and refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him, but he answered his father, ‘Look, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command, yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!’ And he said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found.’”

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

(Sit) Sermon

(Stand) Hymn of the Day “Chief Of Sinners Though I Be” ELW-609

1. Chief of sin-ners though I be,
   Je-sus shed his blood for me,
   died that I might live on high,
   lives that I might never die.
   As the branch is to the vine,
   I am his, and he is mine.
2. Oh, the height of Je-sus' love!
   High-er than the heav'ns a-bove,
   deep-er than the depths of sea,
   last-ing as e-ter-ni-ty.
   Love that found me -- won-drous thought -- found me when I sought him not.

3. On-ly Je-sus can im-part balm to heal the wound-ed heart, peace that flows from sin for-giv'n,
   joy that lifts the soul to heav'n, faith and hope to walk with God in the way that [Luth-er] trod.

4. Chief of sin-ners though I be,
   Christ is all in all to me;
   all my wants to him are known,
   all my sor-rows are his own.
   He sus-tains the hid-den life safe with him from earth-ly strife.

5. O my Sav-ior, help af-ford by your Spir-it and your word!
   When my way-ward heart would stray,
   keep me in the nar-row way;
   grace in time of need sup-ply
   while I live and when I die.

Confessor: I give thanks to God for ...
   and ask you to join me in confessing our faith:
The Nicene Creed:
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.  Amen.
1. We pray for peace, O God of love and justice, as once again we face a time of war.
The meek and humble try -- amid the crisis -- to love and build, to nurture and restore.
May leaders hear the truth the prophets teach us:
that gifts of peace are well worth struggling for.

2. We pray for peace, O Christ who calmed the waters, who stilled the storm, who stilled disciples' fear.
You spoke with love and with amazing power;
be with us now when trouble is so near.
May leaders see the miracle you offer:
that words and deeds can calm the nations here.

3. We pray for peace, O Spirit here among us;
your love emboldens, judges, and restrains.
Take any hate and acts of impulse from us;
make leaders wise, amid competing claims.
May we seek peace, O God of love and justice:
may love and mercy be our highest aims.

(Sit) The Prayers
A: Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, and for all people according to their needs.

* (after each portion of the prayers:)*
A: Lord, in your mercy
C: Hear our prayer.

* (The prayers conclude.)*
A: Into your hands, O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray trusting in your mercy; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
C: Amen.
(Stand) Sharing of the Peace
P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

P: It is indeed right and salutary ... and join their unending hymn:
C: “Santo, Santo, Santo”
arr. Iona Community, admin. GIA Publications

Santo, santo, santo, mi cor-a-zon te_a-dor-a.
Mi cor-a-zon te sa-be de-cir: san-to_e-res Senor.

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, my heart, my heart a-dores you.
My heart is glad to say the words: you are ho-ly, Lord.

The Eucharistic Prayer
P: We give you thanks, Father, through Jesus Christ, your beloved Son, whom you sent in this end of the ages to save and redeem us and to proclaim to us your will. He is your Word, inseparable from you. Through him you created all things, and in him you take delight. He is your Word, sent from heaven to a virgin’s womb. There he took on our nature and our lot and was shown forth as your Son, born of the Holy Spirit and of the virgin Mary. It is he, our Lord Jesus, who fulfilled all your will and won for you a holy people; he stretched out his hands in suffering in order to free from suffering those who trust you. It is he who was handed over to a death he freely accepted, in order to destroy death, to break the bonds of the evil one, to crush hell underfoot, to give light to the righteous, to establish his covenant, and in his resurrection, proclaimed his victory over sin and death.

In the night in which he betrayed, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to his disciples saying, “Take and eat, this is my body, broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way also he took the cup after supper, gave thanks, and gave it to them saying: “Take and drink, this is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sins. Do this as often as you drink it in the remembrance of me.” Remembering, then, his death and resurrection, we lift this bread and cup before you, giving you thanks that you have made us worthy to stand before you and to serve you as your priestly people. And we ask you: Send your Spirit upon these gifts of your Church; gather into one all who share this bread and wine; fill us with your Holy Spirit to establish our faith in truth, that we may praise and glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ, who taught us to pray:

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread;
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us;
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
(Sit) Communion Distribution

Lutherans believe that in Holy Communion we are offered the Body and Blood of Christ for the forgiveness of our sins. Baptized adults who share this belief with us are welcome to come forward to receive Holy Communion. Children who are members of other congregations who have been baptized and take communion at their church are welcome to commune with us. Others, including children, may come forward to receive a blessing.

Those communing may receive the wafer in their hand and you may receive the wine by individual cup. The ushers will direct you to communion.

Straightway Music/Mountain Spring Music

1. Your on-ly Son, no sin to hide, but you have sent him from your side to walk up-on this guilt-y sod and to be-come the Lamb of God.

   Refrain:
   O Lamb of God, sweet Lamb of God,
   I love the ho-ly Lamb of God.
   Oh, wash me in your pre-cious blood,
   my Je-sus Christ, the Lamb of God.

2. Your gift of love we cru-ci-fied.
   We laughed and scorned him as he died.
   The hum-ble king we named a fraud and sac-ri-ficed the Lamb of God.

3. I was so lost, I should have died, but you have brought me to your side to be led by your staff and rod and to be called a lamb of God.
1. I am the Bread of life
   You who come to me shall not hunger;
   And who believe in me shall not thirst.
   No one can come to me unless the Father becons Him.

   Refrain:  And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

2. The bread that I will give
   Is my flesh for the life of the world,
   And if you eat of this bread
   You shall live forever,
   you shall live forever.  Refrain

3. Unless you eat
   Of the flesh of the Son of Man
   And drink of his blood,
   And drink of his blood,
   you shall not have life within you.  Refrain

4. I am the Resurrection,
   I am the life,
   If you believe in me,
   Even though you die,
   you shall live forever.  Refrain

5. Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ,
   The Son of God,
   Who has come into the world,
   who has come into the world.  Refrain
“My Faith Looks Up to Thee”

LBW 479
Text: Ray Palmer; Tune: Lowell Mason

1. My faith looks up to thee,
   Thou Lamb of Calvary, Savior divine!
   Now hear me while I pray, Take all my guilt away,
   Oh, let me from this day Be wholly thine!

2. May thy rich grace impart
   Strength to my fainting heart, My zeal inspire;
   As thou has died for me, Oh, may my love to thee
   Pure, warm, and changeless be, A living fire!

3. While life’s dark maze I tread
   And griefs around me spread, Be thou my guide;
   Bid darkness turn to day, Wipe sorrow’s tears away,
   Nor let me ever stray From thee aside.

4. When ends life’s transient dream,
   When death’s cold, sullen stream shall o’er me roll;
   Blest Savior, then, in love Fear and distrust remove;
   Oh, bear me safe above, A ransomed soul!

(Stand) Post Communion Blessing

P: May this, the body and blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, strengthen you, keeping you steadfast in your faith for life everlasting.
